One student at a time.

Shadow Days

Big Picture Shadow Days for perspective students are fast approaching. We will first welcome current 8th grade students from Kenmore East and Kenmore West to visit the program in early March. The current 7th grade students that are interested in learning more about Big Picture are invited to Shadow Days in late April.

We will also hold a parent information night in late April to help parents of perspective students better understand the program.

If you have any questions about the process, please contact Kevin Kruger or Anne Blenk for more details.

Big Picture Student Honored at Writing Awards

Only student to be honored in three categories!

301 student Hayley Dubuque is known at Big Picture for her creative writing style. Hayley enjoys writing and has impressed her peers and her teachers with the way she can tell a story. Her words conjure images in your mind and place you in whatever world she wants you to go. She has a true talent for the written word.

Hayley entered compositions in the Kenmore West Writing Awards which were handed out February 13th. She was recognized as an Honorable Mention in the Kenneth Feltges Poetry Award for her poem Mental Acrostic. Hayley also won 2nd Place in both the Loren Keller Fiction Award for her story The Week of November 9th, 2015 (excerpt) and the John Milner Non-Fiction Award for her essay.

Each of these awards are named after published authors who are retired Kenmore West English Teachers. It is a great honor to be recognized in this writing competition for just one entry. Hayley was recognized for three different writings and we are so proud of her accomplishments!
